Students plan holiday show of music

NTCA students are planning a Christmas program of "Candlelight Caroling" this year.

Set for 7 p.m. on December 17 in the High Pointe Church of Christ auditorium, the program will feature traditional Christmas carols and Bible readings.

Students need to arrive at 6:30 p.m. Preschool students should wear church or holiday clothes. Elementary students should wear holiday attire (dresses for girls and nice dress pants or khakis for boys with an oxford shirt and tie or sweater). Also, elementary students are asked to wear a winter hat, gloves/mittens, and/or a scarf.

All preschool and elementary classes will be participating. It's a great way to celebrate the joy of Christmas!

Students help High Pointe ministry hand out Thanksgiving food bags

After reading a novel about a girl who helps others, Mrs. Erin Owens' third-grade class decided to do some helping of their own. They assisted the High Pointe Food Pantry with handing out Thanksgiving food bags to needy families on November 18.

"I was blown away by my kids," Mrs. Owens said. "The line for food was all the way to the parking lot a solid hour before the doors opened to hand out Thanksgiving food baskets. These kids worked incredibly hard!"

when there were more families than food bags, which meant about 30 families left without Thanksgiving groceries.

"I think it really opened their eyes to the need in our very own community," Mrs. Owens said. "To these kids, the food pantry is not just a room off the corner of the gym any more. It really means something to these kids now.

"Most of them made comments about making a

NTCA families donate more than 80 pairs in shoe drive

Through the generosity of NTCA Cougars and their families, more than 80 children around the world will soon receive new athletic shoes.

The shoes and socks donated by students will go to at-risk children in the United States and in orphanages around the world through Shoes for Orphan Souls, a ministry of Buckner International.

"The students and parents have been extremely generous in their giving," Mrs. Young said. "We also received several donations from High Pointe Church of Christ members."

The shoes and socks, along with pictures of students and their families, were packed during Chapel on Nov. 11.

"A huge thank you goes to all who donated or contributed to this effort. Teaching others the love of Christ through service is one of the missions of our school. NTCA showed love in a great way through this project," Mrs. Young said.

Mrs. Michelle McDougald's Kindergarten class had 100 percent participation in the project and will receive a "No Uniform Tuesday."

Last year, students gathered 50 pairs of new shoes in one week for Shoes for Orphan Souls.

NTCA students collected shoes for Shoes for Orphan Souls and packed them during chapel recently.

Cougar of the Month

Preston Campbell was the October Cougar of the Month. He is in Mrs. Paige Scott's fourth-grade class.

"Preston does an amazing job of showing selflessness to those around him," Mrs. Scott said. "He is sensitive to others' feelings and always willing to help out a friend. Preston works well in co-operative groups and understands how to listen to other students' ideas. We can all learn from his ability to put other people's feelings before his own."

Congratulations, Preston!

Classroom News

Second grade

Second grade has been writing, writing, writing All About Me papers. They are writing about families, pets, trips, sports, and hobbies. We are learning a lot about writing and each other. In Social Studies, we have been reading about the beginning of our country. It has been interesting to see how many attempts it takes to build a nation. In Math, we have been playing games with tiles about money. We are learning the value of all the coins and bills as well as how to count them quickly. This month we will create menus with prices and order from each other, putting our money skills into practice. In Science, we are finishing up a unit on animals and starting to learn about magnets. Along with all this, Christmas activities are soon to begin!

- Philanthropy—Helping our students develop a giving heart and generous spirit of serving others, such as Shoes for Orphan Souls

- Resource—a.k.a. "fund-raising" to help keep tuition rates reasonable and provide scholarships.
- Internal Communications—newsletter, web site
- Development—Everything from developing relationships with businesses to developing programs for our students.

commitment to bring more food on Chapel day to donate so we wouldn't have to turn away families ever again. That brought tears to my eyes. I asked how it felt to help all of these people, and the common response was that it made their hearts feel so full it could explode! What an emotional day!"

The students recently read the novel Because of Winn-Dixie. The main character, Opal, spends most of her summer in her new town helping others.
